

Residences at The Four Seasons

Whistler, BC, Canada

Hotel Overview

The residences at the Four Seasons are beautifully designed and offer the highest degree of luxury in Whistler. Set within a private tower of the main hotel, the residences are ideally located on the Blackcomb side just a very short walk to the ski lifts. The ski concierge are on hand to assist you in getting to the slopes.

The residences vary from two, three and four bedrooms, some of which have dens with a sofa bed. All residences are spacious and fully furnished, with luxury bathrooms, fully equipped kitchens, and cosy living areas with gas fireplace. Panoramic views of the surrounding forest, valley or mountains can be enjoyed from your own private terrace.

Facilities at the Four Seasons are exceptional, with a smart restaurant, popular apres bar, relaxing spa, state of the art fitness complex and outdoor heated pools and hot tub. You also have access to a private pool solely for guests in the residences.

This truly is an exceptional hotel, with the comfort of your own living space, and complete with Four Seasons service which is hard to beat.
